ONE-HUNDRED-FIFTY-TWO MEMBERS BREAK BREAD

Annual Banquet At Friendly Farm An Overwhelming Success...AGAIN!

There is probably nothing better than getting 152 like minded individuals together, all with 'robust' appetites. There was also very little remaining when Chesapeake Region Members finished the scrumptious buffet-style luncheon and we know for a fact there were ZERO crab cakes left.

The setting of course was the beautiful Friendly Farm Restaurant in Upperco, Maryland. Dining and desert completed, there was much business to conduct including awarding of forty and fifty-year membership lapel pins, awards presented and recognition of a new slate of club officers for the coming year 2015 during which C.R.A.A.C.A. will turn 60 years old! Master of Ceremonies, Jerry Gordon wasted no time warming up the crowd prior to the luncheon being served. Jerry would later present four-term President Gary Wilmer with a gift of a wooden gavel inscribed with the years Gary presided.
